Job Description for Deputy Principal Pastoral Care 2026

The position of Deputy Principal carries a 7MU plus 1 SMA allowance, has five hours of teaching contact time per week, and operates under the provisions of the current Secondary Teachers Collective Agreement.

The specific portfolios will be determined based on the skills and experience of the successful candidate in negotiation with the principal, however, experience in delivering pastoral care, and student discipline, management, and wellbeing will be an asset. Experience in leading the delivery of school wide co-curricular programmes, particularly sport, will also be an advantage.

The Senior Leadership Team works collaboratively to support the principal in:

Leadership of the School

- Articulating and modelling the school's vision, values and virtues.
- Providing a role model for both staff and students.
- Translating the vision and values into clear expectations of excellence for the school community.
- Creating a safe and stimulating learning environment in which students and staff can reach their potential.
- Developing and promoting a culture that fosters personal success, a sense of purpose, and a commitment to learning.
- Supporting the school to meet its bi-cultural commitments.

- To have individual or joint oversight of key areas of school management. The areas of management may change over time.
- Overseeing management and professional growth of HoDs.
- Overseeing management and professional growth of Pastoral Deans and House Leaders.
- Present to the Board of Trustees as required.
- Prepare and present reports, as needed, on areas of strategic responsibility.
- Use data meaningfully to inform decision making and progress.

Communication and Relationship Management

- Developing and maintaining effective relationships with the Board, staff, students, parents/caregivers/whānau, the wider school community and other stakeholders.
- Building and using clear communication channels with parents, caregivers and whānau to ensure they have high-quality information about the school and feel confident about the learning environment.
- Encouraging and guiding staff to communicate effectively with students, parents, caregivers and whānau.
- Developing a culture of honest communication and respect.
- Fostering a sense of pride and school spirit.

- Having difficult conversations to address accountability issues, using a solution-focused approach.
- Providing opportunities for, and supporting leadership development of, teachers and students.

Strategic Tasks

The appointee will accept specific tasks according to their strengths, negotiated with the principal. These tasks may change over time, and could include:

- Special Character
- Using data to support raising student achievement
- Professional Development for staff
- Teaching and Learning
- Curriculum change and delivery

Special Catholic Character Statement

Statement of Expectations for Staff of a Catholic school

The Catholic Church has developed an international network of schools which with all their diversity of culture and language are a Catholic faith community within the wider faith community of the Catholic Church, including parish, diocese, and universal Church. Therefore, the Catholic school's mission is aligned with that of the Church:

- To share the Gospel message of Jesus Christ¹ and so bring about the reign of God: sharing and living the love of God shown in the words and actions of Jesus Christ to create a world of tika, pono and aroha.

Catholic schools have been established to promote the strong character formation of young people based on Gospel values and Christian virtues by providing a quality education within the context of the Catholic faith². In doing so, they support young people's spiritual journey hīkoi wairua and pass on the faith to the next generation.

The Catholic school exists within Aotearoa New Zealand as a state integrated school with a special character. This special character is defined in the school's Integration Agreement as follows:

- The school is a Roman Catholic School in which the whole school community, through the general school programme and in its religious instructions and observances, exercises the right to live and teach the values of Jesus Christ. These values are as expressed in the Scriptures and in the practices, worship, and doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church, as determined from time to time by the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese.

Each Catholic school is unique in terms of history of place; whakapapa, including its founding Religious Congregation's or patron's charism³; and mana whenua, so the expression of its Catholic special character will vary.

A person applying for a position in a Catholic school needs to understand the commitment this involves as follows:

- All staff, whether Catholic or not, are part of the whole school community. Each staff member is therefore expected to use their specific strengths and skills to support the mission of the school.
- The Catholic school educates for the strong formation of young people based on Gospel values and Christian virtues by providing an education within the context of the Catholic faith.⁴
- The curriculum and specific subjects are taught for their own value and with their own objectives. In doing so, a Catholic school seamlessly weaves a religious dimension, particularly a Catholic worldview, across all it teaches, models and practices.
- The Religious Education programme is an integral part of the curriculum. It is specific education in a body of religious knowledge, skills and values which forms a major part of the wider school curriculum and provides a learning platform from which the living-out of faith in families and the parish community may be understood and embraced⁵. The students learn:
 - Te Atua God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit, in relationship with humanity and all of creation.
 - Te Rongopai Good News reveals this relationship through sacred scripture and the Tradition of the Church.
 - Ā Tātou Whakapapa Our Story connects the rich story of the Church with our own stories.
 - Kai Noho Hāhi Being Church involves developing understanding of discipleship, virtues, values, and morality.
 - Mana Tapu Grace, Aroha Pūmau Holiness, Whakaaronui Wisdom, Tika Justice, Īnoi Prayer permeate Catholic teaching and play a significant part in each person's hīkoi wairua spiritual journey.

The school subscribes to the Apostles' Creed, which is the oldest of the formulas used by Christians to express their faith. It accepts the two-fold commandment of Jesus Christ, to love God and neighbour and the other values expressed by Jesus Christ as norms for living. The focal point of the whole school is Jesus Christ.

No staff member will be required to act against their own conscience or personal philosophy of life. Such a requirement would not be in keeping with Catholicism and is contrary to the aims of the school.

However, in accepting a position in a Catholic school it is assumed that staff members realise that:

- Staff work as a team. Therefore, all staff are expected to contribute, according to their individual strengths and within their personal convictions, to the total purpose of the school. No school can operate successfully if any staff member undermines the positive efforts of others.
- Staff are expected to recognize and respect the school's Catholic special character and be actively involved in the total life of the school, in a manner which respects the religious instruction given and religious observances practiced within the school, irrespective of their personal beliefs.
- In schools with a defined charism staff are also expected to recognize and respect that charism.
- Staff are role models for students, colleagues, parents/caregivers in respecting and (subject to personal conscience and beliefs) living the mission and values of the school.
- Staff who do not profess Catholicism are expected to recognize and respect the Catholic special character of the school, and to refrain from doing or saying anything in connection with performing their role within the school that would undermine or inhibit the school's ability to provide education with a Catholic special character.
- Staff are expected to read and abide by the Principles of Commitment for Staff in Aotearoa New Zealand Catholic Schools (NZCEO, 2023).

New staff will find others who are willing to assist them in gaining a fuller understanding of the school and its Catholic special character, and in solving any difficulties that may arise in the course of their work. In addition, the following resources will also be helpful:

- The school's strategic plan
- The Philosophy of Catholic Schools in New Zealand (NZCEO, 2014)
- The Catholic Education of School-Age Children (NZ Catholic Bishops Conference, 2014)
- Sharing the Gospel Today: NZ Catechetical Directory (NZ Catholic Bishops Conference, 2012)
- Tō Tātou Whakapono Our Faith Religious Education Curriculum for Catholic Schools in Aotearoa New Zealand (National Centre for Religious Studies, 2022)
- The Declaration (New Zealand Council of Proprietors of Catholic State-Integrated Schools, 1997, revised 2007)
- The Catholic School (Congregation for Catholic Education, 1977)
- Lay Catholics in Schools: Witnesses to Faith (Congregation for Catholic Education, 1982)
- The Religious Dimension of Education in a Catholic School (Congregation for Catholic Education, 1988).
- The Catholic School on the Threshold of the Third Millennium (Congregation for Catholic Education, July 1998)

I agree to uphold the expectations outlined in this document.
